DIRECTOR'S NOTE

It is indeed a great privilege for me to create history along with you all at the momentous occasion of adding a new chapter to the glorious legacy of Graphic Era Hill University Bhimtal Campus, with the launch of MUNERA 2025. I compliment WordWhims Club for taking the initiative and exhibiting courage in conducting the inaugural MUN of our campus. Your venue is the eleventh most beautiful campus in the country and there can be no better place than this serene campus, dotted with colours of blooming flowers, silence pierced only by the avians, abundant freshness in air, green hills all around etc that can cultivate perspective, responsibility and leadership in a global context.

MUNERA reflects the firm belief of our University that education must go beyond imparting knowledge. We live in an era where international challenges are no longer distant—they define our daily lives, whether through technology, environment, economics or geopolitics. To engage with such complexity, young minds must be trained not only to master facts, but to ask questions, to listen with empathy, to disagree in an agreeing manner, to put across the perspective firmly and to build solutions collectively with amicability. MUN provides precisely this environment: transition young minds to global citizens.

I urge every delegate to treat this conference not simply as a competition, but also as an opportunity to practice the art of diplomacy, to broaden their worldview and to understand the power of dialogue in shaping the future. I extend my best wishes to all participants and look forward to seeing this first edition set a standard of tradition and excellence for years to come.

COORDINATOR'S NOTE

It is with immense pride that I welcome you to the inaugural edition of the Graphic Era Hill University Model United Nations. It is the earnest endeavour of WordWhims Club to make this a refreshing and memorable experience for the participating delegates, with global ambience stimulating the spirit of global oneness, aligned to the noble Indian principle of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam.

This conference, MUNERA is more than an academic exercise; it is an arena where ideas evolve into solutions and perspectives converge into dialogue. In a world defined by complexity, the ability to think critically, negotiate thoughtfully and act collectively is indispensable. MUNERA aspires to cultivate these very qualities by engaging delegates with pressing global challenges and encouraging them to respond with intellect, empathy and vision.

We look forward to the insights and innovation you will bring to this platform and to the impact these deliberations will create beyond committee walls. We are eager to see the young minds transforming our picturesque campus to a truly international platform with the air filled with dialogues and ideas of global goodness.

With best regards,
Asst. Prof. Maya G Pillai
Event Coordinator

Message from Secretary General

Greetings!

It is with great honor that I welcome you to the first edition of our Model United Nations. This conference is not just a simulation, it is a platform where young leaders come together to question, deliberate and reimagine solutions for the challenges of our time.

Our world today faces pressing issues: climate change, pandemics, conflicts, economic divides and humanitarian crises that test the strength of global cooperation. In such times, the value of dialogue, diplomacy and collective action cannot be overstated. This MUN seeks to ignite those very qualities in every delegate.

Here, you are not just participants, you are diplomats, innovators and changemakers. The debates you engage in, the resolutions you draft and the collaborations you build will go far beyond the committee rooms; they will shape how you view leadership, responsibility and the global community.

I urge you to approach this conference with courage, empathy and curiosity. Listen as much as you speak, challenge ideas but respect perspectives and above all, remember that every word has the power to inspire change.

I look forward to seeing the energy and intellect that each of you will bring to this historic beginning. May this first edition mark the start of a tradition of diplomacy, dialogue and discovery.

With best regards,
Ishita Karnatak
Secretary General
